Long Post:

Is writing your passion? Would you quit your day job if you could write for a living?

Maybe you've considered writing magazine articles, or a blog post assignment for your favorite restaurant. But the math just doesn't work...because they only pay peanuts!

Well, I've discovered that there are certain ways you can make a full-time income with your writing, working just 3 to 4 hours a day!

Imagine waking up on a tropical island, say Cozumel, Mexico. You enjoy your leisurely breakfast while listening to the birds singing. You then finish your writing project you began yesterday...you're done in just a few hours!

The rest of your day is filled with snorkeling, reading, and a well-deserved late afternoon nap. You're totally relaxed, because you just made enough money in 2 days to cover your expenses for a whole month!

Can this really happen? Our friend Mindy writes for 2 hours early each morning. After having breakfast with her family & getting the kids off to school, she writes for 2 more hours. The rest of her day is free! And she made $114,000 last year!

So, what's the secret?

Video Script Post:

Scene	Visual	Audio
1	Woman at her desk smiling while typing on her laptop computer	Do you love to write?
2	A stack of $100 bills sitting next to a hand-written writing assignment	Wouldn't it be great if you could make some income from your writing?
3	A harried looking man at a desk, with a cigarette in his mouth, frowning at his desktop computer	You're probably thinking: Ya, sure, I could make some money with my writing...if I'm willing to put in 40 or 50 hours per week!
4	Another man relaxed, smiling, with his feet propped up on his work desk, and a small stack of $50 and $100 bills next to him	But what if I told you it's now possible to make real money on writing projects...working just Part Time?
5	Same man swinging a golf club on the golf course with his friends	Imagine writing for 3 or 4 hours per day, and having the rest of your day free...to play a round of golf, go shopping, read a good book, or whatever!
6	A happy woman writing on her keyboard at her home office, in the evening	Or maybe you have a full-time job you enjoy. You could do your writing for a few evenings during the week, and for a few more hours on the weekend...and make enough money for your next vacation!
7	Picture of Mindy, smiling	My friend Mindy has found just the right writing assignments to make part time writing work for her.
8	Mindy at her desk, broad grin on her face, and her kids playing in the background	She averages writing 4 hours a day and has plenty of time to be with her family and have some free time too! She made $114,000 in her first year as a freelance part-time professional writer!
9	Slide with the words "Best writing projects?"	So what type of writing projects am I talking about? Well, here are just a couple examples:
10	Scene of a product demonstration going on, including the camera person filming the scene	According to American Writers & Artists 2019 pricing guide, you can earn $1000 or more writing a short video explaining how a product works. This could take you 8 to 10 hours to write.

11	A folder with typed pages inside, with the words “Case Study” printed on the front, sitting on a business desk. A caption underneath this says Problem or Need Identified / Problem Solved!	You could also write a Case Study for a product or service. This tells a story about how this product solved a problem for a real customer. This might take 10 to 15 hours to write, and you can be paid $1200-$2000 for this fun project!
